

25/6/2021

Recommendation Letter

To JSC "EC "Technohim"

Certification and Standardization department

This recommendation letter is to confirm that your company has executed to the fullest the scope of our contractual demands for TR CU 012 certification process and relating project documentation demands for safety justification, operating manual & technical passports.

JSC "EC "Technohim" Certification and Standardization department led by Engineer Elizaveta Timbakova has executed the TR CU 012 certification process in accordance with the strict Technical regulation certification of custom union and all documentation were developed in strict compliance to the Standard of Russian federation and Custom union EAC and meets the requirements and satisfactory of our client and project end user.

The whole approval process has been conducted in a professional and timely manner which has been highly appreciative with our client and end users.

We highly appreciate the work done by the Certification and Standardization department team and mostly the professional work conducted by Engineer Elizaveta Timbakova whose technical expertise, high and speedy response rate and professionalism contributed to the satisfactory execution of our certification and documentation needs.

As a proven successful and reliable service provider JSC "EC "Technohim" will be welcomed to further projects as our local certification and technical documentation provider.

We thank you for your cooperation and hope to work together in the near future

Industry & FP Manager

Laurent Dupuis

Project Manager App. Eng Dept.

A.R.I Optimal Flow solutions

Tal Horwitz